Presenters and Concurrent Sessions:

Odor Control- Presented by Barry Lichtenstein of Amcho Carpet Cleaning, Framingham, MA. Barry has been in business for over 25 years, is an IICRC Master Textile Cleaner, and a longtime member of NEIRC. He is also the IICRC secretary. If you want to do specialty services like water damage restoration, you need special equipment and training, however you can enter the market of specialty odor control with a very minimal investment in chemicals and using equipment that you most likely already have. Learn these techniques as Barry shows the hand-on step by step process for complete urine decontamination in a variety of situations.

Advanced Upholstery Cleaning - Presented by Peter Mavilio of Regal Fabric Care, Woburn, MA. Pete will show how to pretest any fabric, and how to clean even the most soiled easy chairs. He'll talk about whether dry cleaning really works, and how to clean Grandma's needlepoint covered chair. He'll also discuss fabric protectors, specialty fabrics, hidden dangers to avoid, and when to say "No".

Flood Damage Restoration - Presented by Eric Hunter, Senior Project Manager & Safety Director, A.R.S. Services, Newton, MA. Eric will show you how to save hardwood floors with state of the art techniques including rescue mats, inject a dry systems, and tricks of the trade. He will discuss tenting, and the use of hot air, along with alternative drying opportunities. He will show some strategies for drying wall cavities and crawl spaces.
